"I am so grateful for the support I have received from my community," he said. "Alvernia is a beautiful place filled with amazing people. I have been given a great opportunity, and I am thankful for that." Though he may not have been the first choice of the school's admissions committee, members of the community were quick to welcome him to the Aiken family. "I'm excited to have a son enrolled at Alvernia," said Katie Hackett, chairwoman of Alvernia's Board of Trustees. "In all the evaluations we did, he was a definite top candidate." To Mizzi, Alvernia has been a place of camaraderie, a place where family support is essential. "The biggest thing is that it's a family setting," he said. "Everyone is trying to do their best to support each other." Mizzi said he would miss some of the students, especially the ones who have parents who do not attend the school. Mizzi said he knew that his leaving would leave a void at the school, but he also felt like an important part
