Indmar 2003 . Uncollege Alternative .Q: How can I get a promise/deferred into my setState function? I need to make ajax requests. I am using the promise/deferred pattern to get my response from the ajax request. I need to set the state of my component with the successful response.
What I've tried so far: /* setState is a method of my Component's class */ setState((props, state) => { this.setState({isLoading: true}); //Here I need the deferred with the response (can be something like a toJson() Promise) }); But this does not return the deferred or promise. I get undefined. I also tried promises.all(). How can I make this work? A
