WinAVI All-In-One Converter 1.2.0.3939-Immagical (64-bit) download.The Wine of the Week for July 2011 is a bottle of Riesling from Franz Künstler Winery. It is a Riesling Spätlese, which is a sort of final release or end product of Riesling. It is considered one of the most important styles of Germany's most important wine grape variety. For wine drinkers who are accustomed to sweet wines, Riesling is often a refreshing change. It can be made to have great acidity, which is a great attribute if you're an enthusiast of Burgundy type wines or German wine in general. The wine is a 2007 Riesling, which is an excellent vintage. The wine is from Mosel, which is one of the most notable areas for growing Riesling. Today's tasting will consist of two wineries, Franz Künstler and Grundfos. Franz Künstler is more known to grow Riesling, while Grundfos is more known to focus on many other grapes such as Pinot Noir. Franz Künstler makes the Schrammling wine, which is an especially nice wine and has been well-received when it has been released. This year, they released an extra special wine, the "Schrammling Trimax" wine. This is a custom wine, made for a particular customer, in this case,
